- ### POINTS OF INTEREST
- Grave of Twelve Foot Davis.—H. F. Davis gained international fame under the nickname of "Twelve Foot" Davis, when during the Caribou gold rush, he noticed two gold claims at Barkerville seemed to exceed the limit by twelve feet which he promptly staked. The 12-foot claim yielded more than $15,000 in gold.
 - St. Charles Mission.—About 50 miles north of Grande Prairie at Dunvegan Crossing is the first permanent Roman Catholic mission church in the vast Peace River district, constructed during the years 1880-1885.
 - District of Athabasca, 1882.—To the north of this claim lies the old District of Athabasca of the North West Territories. The District of Athabasca was eventually absorbed by the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.
 - Athabasca Landing.—This was once the "jumping off point" for the vast northland. Here in 1887 the steamer "Athabasca" was built to ply the river between Mormon Landing and the Grand Rapids.
 - St. Albert Cathedral.—Enclosed within a protective building is the original log cathedral constructed in 1861 by Father Lacombe, pioneer western Canadian priest.
 - Fort White Earth.—In 1710, the Hudson's Bay and North West Companies abandoned Fort Edmonton, upstream, and established a joint trading post within a single pallisade at this point.
 - Winnipeg Trail.—Near this point the Highway crosses the old Winnipeg Trail. It was used extensively after 1860 by explorers, traders and missionaries.
 - Frog Lake Massacre.—25 miles north of Marwayne in Eastern Alberta, a cairn and cemetery stand in memory of the massacre at Frog Lake, April 2, 1885. Nine men were killed and a North West Mounted Police Constable was fatally injured the next day by an attacking band of Cree Indians.
 - Paint Creek Ruins.—Two forts of the rival Hudson's Bay and North West Companies were built within a single pallisade at this site shortly after 1800. The posts were also known as Fort Vermilion.
 - High Level Bridge.—Constructed in 1910-1913 at a cost of $2,000,000, the 2,478 foot bridge crosses the North Saskatchewan River at Edmonton. The top deck was designed originally to accommodate streetcars and trains while motor traffic used the centre deck.
 - Fort Edmonton.—First established by Hudson's Bay Co. in 1785, Fort Edmonton was moved several times before settling permanently at this site in 1860.
 - Legislative Buildings.—Located on the site of the old Fort Edmonton, Alberta's legislative building was started in 1898 and finished in 1911. The building is open to visitors Mondays to Fridays only.
 - Storyland Valley.—A five acre children's zoo depicts fairy tales and nursery rhymes in oversize plastic models. Displayed are species of animals and birds from many parts of the world. Opened in 1959 the zoo is circled by the Edmonton Little Western Railroad which takes passengers on a quarter mile tour.
 - 14 and 14A.—Jubilee Auditoriums.—Among the world's outstanding auditoria are the two located at Edmonton and Calgary. Commemorating the Province's Golden Jubilee in 1955, the $4.5 million buildings seat 2,750 persons.
 - Elk Island Park.—One of the few remaining herds of buffalo are to be found at Elk Island National Park.
 - "Ribitones".—These stones which resemble the ribs of a buffalo undoubtedly had a sacred significance, were graven well over a thousand years ago.
 - Fort de l'Isle.—Alex. Mackenzie of newly-formed XY Co. established a trading post here in autumn 1799.
 - Ukrainian Museum.—A unique museum displaying the national costumes, handicrafts and other hereditary features of Ukrainian culture, is located at Mundare, near a groto maintained by the Basilian Fathers.
 - Blackfoot-Cree Battle.—In autumn 1870, about 800 Cree and Assiniboines attacked the Bloods and Blackfeet across the river. The Blackfeet repulsed the invaders, drove them into the river near here and ruthlessly slaughtered them. Final loss estimated 200 to 300 Cree and 40 Blackfeet. This was the last great Indian battle.
 - Massacre Butte.—In 1867, an immigrant train consisting of about twelve men, women and children was massacred near this hill during the night by a war party of Blood Indians led by Medicine Hat.
 - First Alberta Oil Well.—Located on Cameron Creek in Waterton National Park, an old drill stem and a few wooden pulleys mark the site of the first oil well drilled in Alberta in 1902.
